Capital Campaign To Hoist The Skipjack Martha Lewis Sail's*

The vision of the CHC is to connect the community with the unique history of the Chesapeake Bay serving as a guardian of the past, while providing education and preservation to the present and future.

Please join the Chesapeake Heritage Conservancy, Inc. in our mission to Hoist the Sails of the Skipjack Martha Lewis in 2017.

Chesapeake Heritage Conservancy, Inc. and the Skipjack Martha Lewis

Are dedicated to:

Providing an opportunity for students to experience the Skipjack Martha Lewis as a living classroom enabling students to study the bay, surrounding rivers, regional marine life and the environment.

Educating the public in the heritage of the Chesapeake Bay and its surrounding rivers.

Assisting with scientific research to gather information.

Promoting and preserving historic Chesapeake Bay watercraft.

Preserving the marine life in the Chesapeake Bay and its rivers.

The Skipjack Martha Lewis returns home to Havre de Grace, MD

Martha's hull was inspected by the Coast Guard and deemed sound.

The skipjack was successfully launched on August 12, 2016 and is now residing at the Havre de Grace Marine Center. A new mast has been shaped and will be stepped as part of the final restoration. To date, approximately $108,000.00 has been spent on the Martha's restoration by the Chesapeake Heritage Conservancy, Inc.
